Dear Recruiter

To whom it may concern, I would like to express my interest in this job and I am writing this presentation letter for the position offered which I saw advertised in LinkedIn for Software Developer. As you will see, I have been a Technical Systems Developer(Since 2020) for 5 years experiencing new languages and tools to create and implement software applications. I am looking to bring my strong professional and technical skills to the Programmer open in this job opportunity.
I have experience in different areas, that bring me a lot of abilities make me enjoy being challenged and engaging with projects that require me to work outside my comfort and knowledge set, as continuing to learn new languages and development techniques are important to my career and the success of your organization.

My skills with code is Technical skills :

- Web development using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Python, Node, Java, Express, PHP, C, Handlebars, GitHub, Visual Studio Code, Flask, Docker, MySQL, SQL Server, Prisma, SQLAlchemy, MySQL, Codespace.
-Design of interactive and mobiles apps with Android Studio in agile development.

Soft skills:

- I have gained valuable skills from working across diverse fields, including law, administration, sales, caregiving, and cleaning. These roles have honed my ability to adapt quickly to new challenges, communicate effectively with diverse audiences, manage time efficiently, maintain attention to detail under pressure, strong organizational skills, attention to detail, and the ability to handle complex documentation, persuasive communication, relationship-building, and customer service excellence, patience, empathy, problem-solving, and commitment to quality and reliability.

This diverse background enables me to bring a unique, well-rounded perspective to problem-solving and collaboration in any role.

I would greatly appreciate the opportunity to meet with you and will discuss my qualifications and your requirements in detail.

Sincerely,

Thays Ribeiro Maher
